

Australian
Association for Professional and Applied Ethics

11th Annual Conference

First Notice and Call for Papers

AAPAE will be holding its 11th Annual Conference, hosted by the University of Western Sydney, in the beautiful rural setting of the Hawkesbury campus (old Hawkesbury Agricultural College)

Richmond, NSW, AUSTRALIA

29th September – 1st October, 2004

The Organising Committee welcome your attendance. The conference will start with a welcoming reception on Wednesday evening 29 September and continue on Thursday 30 September and Friday 1 October, leading into a long weekend in NSW. Participants, families and accompanying guests will have the opportunity to attend social events in the Hawkesbury region and Sydney on the weekend. Motel or student accommodation is available on campus at very reasonable rates, and varieties of motel accommodation are available in Richmond or Windsor. Information about the Hawkesbury area can be found at www.hawkesburyvalley.com

Papers, workshops and works-in-progress sessions will cover a broad spectrum of ethical issues related to professional and practical ethics.

Refereed papers will be published in a format which satisfies requirements for DEST recognition – Papers must be received by June 25, 2004. See the conference web site for formatting requirements.

Abstracts for non-refereed papers or presentations must be received by August 30, 2004.

Papers and abstracts to Stephen Coleman, at scoleman@csu.edu.au

Further details about conference themes, conference strands and session types will be posted as they become available: see the AAPAE web site at

<http://www.arts.unsw.edu.au/aapae/>

Enquiries about the conference may be sent to Lin Brown (l.j.brown@uws.edu.au)

Information Last Updated: May 14, 2004
