Areas of interest and expertise (not more than 100 words):

The AAPAE is also seeking to extend the scope of its activities, within the objectives laid down in the constitution. As part of this activity, it is seeking to improve the level of contact with those outside the Association. Additional information from members about their interests and willingness to assist will help in this endeavour.

The information in this box will not be made available to others, beside the AAPAE Committee, without the specific approval of the member. It will not be included in any published directory of members.

[] I am willing to consider requests from organisations for the AAPAE to provide a speaker on topics in professional and applied ethics. If yes, in what topics:

The AAPAE respects and protects the privacy of its members, and is bound by the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), including the Australian Privacy Principles.
